

A Program of Santa Clarita
Valley School Food Services Agency

2020 Summer Meal Program

Children can have free meals while school is out this summer with the USDA SUMMER MEAL PROGRAM being sponsored by the Santa Clarita Valley School Food Services Agency (School Day Cafe).

All children between the ages of 1 year and 18 years of age may participate and you do not need to be an enrolled student. Meals will be served as grab and go with minimal contact and may not be consumed on site.

Please wear a cloth face covering when picking up the meals for your protection and ours.
