In the coming weeks, you will have the opportunity to participate in Goal Setting Conferences with your child's teacher. We reserve this time, early in the school year, to begin building relationships with families and setting positive outcomes for our students. Please see the welcome letter HERE which describes the Goal Setting process and visit our website at www.sssd.k12.ca.us to view the grade level expectations for your child this year.

Wishing you and your family a restful weekend. Thank you.
